Profile

As an experienced complex injury case manager Jamie brings many years of expertise in clinical and leadership roles both as a case manager and clinical specialist physiotherapist. Jamie is highly skilled in managing client led care and rehabilitation plans throughout their recovery journey.

Jamie is a knowledgeable and compassionate case manager with a clear outcome driven rationale for supporting and empowering clients experiencing brain injuries, polytrauma, complex orthopaedic trauma and pain conditions.

Jamie is extremely hardworking and motivated. He has a highly positive 'can do' attitude that resonates with his clients and helps him to quickly establish trusting relationships with them. Jamie is an excellent facilitator of change where this is required and understands the components needed for effective change management.

Jamie has excellent communication skills and values honesty and transparency to ensure all parties are kept informed in a timely manner to support the case's progress. He has a highly collaborative approach and aims to utilise all resources available to the client whether Statutory (NHS/Social Care) Third Sector (Charity) or Private. Jamie has a good understanding of the litigation process and produces timely, well evidenced reports that clearly reflect the needs of the client.

Jamie has a thorough understanding of the statutory sector including funding hierarchy having worked in the NHS for many years.

If you were to work with Jamie you can expect to get an empathetic, dynamic, motivating individual who will be with you to achieve your goals every step of the way.

Testimonial

"Jamie has a really practical approach and is able to build the right support network and drive matters forward for clients to work towards achievable goals. He provides clear advice to support a financial deputy in the relevant decision making."
